Morris Family Receives Check

Mr. Harry Reynolds, (far left) President of the Spout Springs Ruritan Club, is shown presenting a check in the amount of $200.00 to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morris. The check is a gift from the Spout Spring Ruritans.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris lost their home, furniture and clothing in a fire on Friday, October 30th. According to a spokesman from the Ruritan Club, a portable TV set that was near the door was the only thing saved in the fire except the clothes that the Morris family were wearing.

Band Parents Plan Bake Sale & Pennant Sale

Members of the A C HS Band Parents Group will hold a bake sale this Saturday to help raise funds for the new high school band uniforms. Tables of baked goods will be set up on Main Street and in front of Kings Mkt.

All parents participating are asked to bring their baked goods to the Traveller's Inn Motel before 9 a.m. Saturday. Mrs. Ray Noble, Pres., is in charge of the sale.

Also, on sale this month are the new grey and blue high school pennants. Many of the band students can be found selling them at major points over the week ends. Mrs. R. D. Jones is in charge of this sale.

Please come out and help these deserving students meet their obligations.

AUCTION SALE TO BE HELD SATURDAY

The S. Tilden Lee Estate, auction sale that was postponed because of rain will be held Saturday at 11 a.m.

Bloodmobile Has Six 1st Timers

In a Bloodmobile visit with 101 donors last Tuesday, Nov. 3, six first-time donors each gave a pint of blood to help with the quota.

In addition, there were fourteen donors who received recognition for many visits. Mrs. Dot Davidson received a four gallon pin. Three-gallon pins were given to Joseph William Goin, Edward N. Harvey and James A. Beaty. Two-gallon pins went to Wallace Haley, Sam Ferguson, Rev. Alfred Eastman, Reginal R. Spradlin and Jim Woody. One-gallon pins went to Isabelle Harvey, Rose Evans, Henry Chernault and Roberts Coleman.

The first-time donors included David Doss, Alama Jenkins, of Cullen, Colleen G. Hout James Doss, Raford Fleshman and William Watson, who gave the last pint of the day to account for the 101 total. Quota was 105 pints, according to co-chairmen Mrs. Lucy Harvey and Mrs. Betsy Carter, but because the quota went over by four units on the previous visit, Appomattox is 100% of quota.

Hunting Season Opens Monday

Bennett Wins Area Award

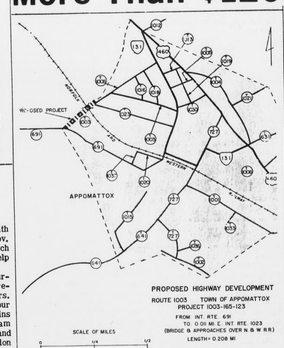
Fifty - nine Soil and Water Conservation District directors, conservationist and guests attended the annual meeting of Area 5 of the Va. Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts Wednesday at Madison Heights, Va.

C. S. Rush and R. E. McClenny Jr. attended.

Speakers included C. J. Koch, State Soil Scientist with the Soil Conservation Service, Mason Carbaugh, director of the Virginia Soil and Water Conservation Commission and Rev. Omer G. Burnette, in giving the after dinner address, Rev. Burnette emphasized that land that now provides for one , will probably have to support 10 or 20 in the future; we can't afford to waste any of our natural resources.

Mr. Koch showed the need for using soil and water information in county and regional planning.

The six soil and water conservation districts represented at the meeting were Robert E. Lee, Peaks of Otter, Blue Ridge Southside, Pittsylvania, and Halifax. Each district submitted one entry to be judged by the association as the "Outstanding District Cooperator" and James Bennett of Red House was judged to be the winner for his conservation work.



Bridge Proposed For Appomattox

Proposed plans to widen a street and to erect a new bridge where the street crosses the Norfolk and Western Railway tracks in Appomattox will be discussed at a location and design public hearing at 7 p.m. Wed. (Nov. 18) in Appomattox Courthouse.

The Department of Highways said that the proposed project calls for widening Town 1003 (Ferguson Street) from a width of 18 feet to 22 feet from its intersection with T-691 (Lee-Grant Avenue) to just east of the intersection with T-1023 (Morton Lane), a distance of 0.21 of a mile.

The proposed new bridge would have a 24-foot-wide roadway with a full four-foot sidewalk on its north side. It would be 170 feet long. The present bridge is 166 feet long and slightly over 17 feet wide

Maps, drawings and other pertinent information are available for public inspection and copying in the Department of Highways Lynchburg District Office, located on US 501 just south of Lynchburg and at the department's Appomattox Residency office on Ferguson St. just east of the N & W overpass.

Written statements and other exhibits relative to the proposed project may be presented in place of, or in addition to, oral statements at the hearing. Such written statements and exhibits may also be submitted to the Highway Department at any time within 10 days following the hearing.

Abbitt Carries 4th District By Great Majority

As of Tuesday, November 10, 1970, an unofficial count of votes from the State Board of Elections in Richmond, Virginia, with only two precincts still not reported, Congressman Watkins M. Abbitt of Appomattox led the Congressional Ticket in the Fourth District by a great majority.

The count from the State Board of Elections shows 54,868 votes for Watt Abbitt, running for re-election on the Democratic ticket; 24,958 votes for Ben Ragsdale, running as an Independent; and 9,833 votes for Jimmy Helms, who ran on the Republican ticket.

For the past twenty-two years, Congressman Abbitt has done an excellent job representing the people of the Fourth District and we are confident that he will continue to represent all the people of his district to the best of his ability.
